Product Description

EFINTECH >>
Exhibition and Forum of Installers and New Technologies
EFINTEC aims to bring together all professionals in the installation and distribution of the sectors of energy, electricity, telecommunications, air conditioning, gas, refrigeration, plumbing and, in general, technologies and intelligent and connected facilities, whose purpose is to exchange experiences and news with its suppliers and professionals, also offering the necessary technical support on the brands and products that lead the market.In these moments of great dynamism for the sector, EFINTEC seeks to be the ideal reference to connect with these technologies and traditional and cutting-edge trends, making available to professional installation companies all the information and documentation necessary for the successful completion of their work, that now, more than ever, connects with a new reality. Therefore, it will affect the dynamism and current issues that most affect the sector.In this first edition, the contest brings together the largest and most important list of companies in the market, all of them referring to national and international level, and experts in making profitable, with their offer and solutions, the management of facilities companies.Given the expectations awakened, there is no doubt that EFINTEC - exposure of the sectors of ENERGY, ELECTRICITY, TELECOMMUNICATIONS, CLIMATIZATION, COOLING, GAS, PLUMBING, etc. - can play a key role in helping to connect professionals with the most suitable solutions for business development.
