Product Description

Puericultura>>
International Childhood Products Trade Show Puericultura, the trade fair dedicated to children's products, presents a wide selection of children's clothing, children's furniture and toys on a large exhibition area. Visitors attending the fair such as manufacturers of children's products, retailers and decision makers of the industry, can get a comprehensive overview of the latest collections and products from well-known brands and learn about the trends of the coming season. There is plenty of time to communicate with experts in order to exchange experiences or initiate new business contacts. Exhibitors from about 20 countries are expected to participate in this great event. In special meetings visitors have the chance to be consulted thoroughly and thus to be prepared for the future challenges. The exhibition centre Feria de Madrid, where the exhibition takes place, is strategically located and in the immediate vicinity of the international airport. The building complex is easy to reach with public transport.The Puericultura]will take place on 3 days in Madrid
