Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions form part of the contract with Sky Barcino, SL. Please read them carefully as they set our respective rights and obligations when making a reservation.

RESERVATION: At the time of confirming a reservation with us, Sky Barcino, SL will issue the reservation confirmation and/or pro-forma requesting the corresponding deposit. Upon receipt of the deposit, acceptance of our Terms and Conditions is implied following the following clauses.

The reservation holder must be over 18 years old, once processed the reservation confirmation will be sent to you, which must be verified by you carefully as soon as you receive it. Please contact us immediately if there is any incorrect or incomplete information, as it may not be possible to make changes at a later date, it is beyond our responsibilities if they are not notified within 24 hours of receipt.

In case of notifications outside this time limit, we will do everything possible to rectify any errors or changes, please note that this may entail extra costs.

Any information you provide us will be transmitted to our travel providers.

PAYMENTS: At the time of booking a deposit payment of a stipulated amount may be requested or the total payment according to each reservation may be requested, which will not be refundable. In case only a deposit is paid, the payment of the remaining balance will be informed via e-mail, it will never be less than 16 weeks prior to the trip. In case of not receiving the total or partial payment, as requested on the due date, Sky Barcino, SL has the right to cancel your reservation without refunding the previously paid amount. We accept payments through bank transfers.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE: We do not include personal medical assistance in our reservations. We recommend that you take out a medical insurance policy that covers the costs of assistance (including repatriation), in case of accident, illness, lost of luggage, money and other expenses. Take your medical and/or travel insurance with you, it may be required in an emergency.

DOCUMENT DELIVERY: All documents (invoices, vouchers, et.) will be sent via e-mail to the addresses provided or delivered at the destination of the reserved event, or in the case of event tickets, in the format that the organizer decides for each of them. Once the documents have been delivered, we will not be responsible for their loss unless it is due to our negligence.

PASSPORTS, VISAS AND HEALTH: All passengers without exception (including children) must carry their corresponding documentation in accordance with the law of the country or countries to which they are traveling. It is the sole responsibility of passengers, when travel requires it, to obtain their visas, passports, vaccinations, certificates, etc. In case the visa is rejected by the authorities or if entry into the country is denied to the passenger for not complying with requirements, problems with documentation or forgetting it, the passenger will be solely responsible. Therefore, S33kers Hospitality, SL declines any responsibility for such events and it is the responsibility of the passenger to pay for any costs that may be incurred. All passengers must comply with all current laws and requirements regarding visas to enter all countries. In case of passengers under 18 years of age traveling alone, with one parent or without both parents or legal guardians must have permission issued by the legal authority certifying their minority with the relevant documentation and permission.

TRANSFERS: They will be provided on a regular service basis on buses and shared with other passengers. Passengers are allowed to carry one suitcase per passenger with an assigned seat or by car or minivan as set in the proposal. The waiting time at the airport from the moment of landing at the airport will be a maximum of 45 minutes without exception. Transfer schedules will be reconfirmed at our destination by our staff. It will be the passenger's responsibility to comply with designated transfer times, maximum waiting time for pick-up for transfers to airports, events, etc, will be 10 minutes. In case of not showing up at the stipulated time, passengers must move on their own.

HOTELS: Hotels are subject to availability; double or twin rooms are not guaranteed. At check-in time, hotels may request a credit card from passengers as a guarantee for additional costs that may be incurred during their stay. In case of traveling with children, accommodation policy will be subject to each establishment. Hotels may be modified by one of equal or better category at no additional charge.

TICKETS: Unless otherwise stated, Sky Barcino, SL is not an official ticket seller for events. Tickets will be delivered on site up to 2 hours before the start of the event. Sky Barcino, SL does not guarantee that seats will be next to each other, regardless of whether the travel program reservation has been made for a group. For the reservation and issuance of tickets to the event, the Travel Agency/Tour Operator, must provide passenger information: copy of passport, complete address (address, postal code, city, country), email address, mobile phone number with corresponding country code. In case S33kers Hospitality, SL fails to deliver the tickets, it will refund the corresponding amount for them, as long as the claim is made within 10 days of the date of the specific event that the passenger attended. Tickets can be on paper, electronic or downloaded through a mobile application, therefore, passengers must have internet access in the country where the event takes place in order to enter. Sky Barcino, SL is not responsible in case passengers do not have the mobile to enter the event. The price printed on the ticket is not binding on the sale price, which includes management fees, taxes, etc. The passenger accepts and consents to such sale and will not have any possibility of claiming.

The lost, stolen or damaged tickets cannot be reprinted.

CANCELLATIONS AND MODIFICATIONS: Any cancellation or amendment request must be sent in writing via email and will not take effect until received by us. Cancellation of reservation will incur charges of 100% of its cost. We do not guarantee that we can comply with change request. The amendment fee will be €50 per person.

In case cancellations or modifications are made by Sky Barcino, SL, it will be notified as soon as possible and an alternative will be offered; you will have the option to accept or reject it. In this latter case, a full refund of what was previously paid for cancellation or modification will be made except for those costs incurred by modifications. In case of cancellation of the event due to natural disasters, terrorism, political causes (demonstrations, general strike, etc.) and epidemics or by organizers themselves, S33kers Hospitality, SL will not be responsible for them and no refund will be made.

CANCELLATION OR CHANGE BY THE EVENT ORGANIZER:: In the event that the event is held behind closed doors (without an audience), if the city of the venue is changed, if it is canceled or postponed by the Organizers, due to influences beyond the scope and control of Sky Barcino, SL, the Agency will have credit in favor to be used for any future sporting event. The credit note will be valid for use for a maximum of 1 year from the date of issue. Please note that prices are subject to change, which may result in an increase in the cost for the future selected event.

CLAIMS: In the hypothetical case that you have a claim, complaint or experience any problem with your package while you are away, you must immediately inform our local representative or agent of the service provider in question. Any notification must be specified in writing and delivered as soon as possible. If we do not have or cannot contact you at your destination, you should contact us in Spain using the contact details provided, giving us full details and a contact number. Until we know about complaints or problems we cannot begin to resolve them. If the passenger is dissatisfied, he/she must report it within 28 days of returning to his/her country of origin, providing his/her booking reference and full details of his/her complaint. For all complaints and claims involving illness, personal injury and death, Sky Barcino, SL cannot be held responsible for this type of complaint. Cancellation or charges due to force majeure that are beyond our control, unfortunately since it is not the responsibility of Sky Barcino, SL they cannot be accepted or proceed with any compensation. In these reservations, "force majeure" conditions mean any event that we or the provider of the services in question could not have foreseen or avoided even with due care. Such events may include war or threat of war, riots, civil unrest, terrorist activity, industrial dispute, natural or nuclear disaster, adverse weather conditions, fires or different events beyond our control. Complaints will not be accepted for claims for services contracted directly by the passenger at their destination. Sky Barcino, SL will not be responsible for those services that are not included in the contracted package.,

COST OF YOUR TRIP: We reserve the right to increase or decrease the prices of our packages at any time. Sky Barcino, SL reserves the right to make changes and corrections to advertised prices at any time. Once your reservation has been confirmed there will be no modifications except for currency fluctuations.

SECURITY RULES: The Passenger must take into account that the requirements and rules of the country applied to his/her reservation will correspond to the country where the event will take place.

BEHAVIOR: We expect all our clients to be considerate to other passengers. If in our reasonable opinion or in the reasonable opinion of any other person in authority, the passenger or any member of the group behaves improperly and causes problems for any third party, Sky Barcino, SL, will have the right to terminate the tour package without prior notice and the passenger(s) in question will be required to leave the accommodation or other service. We will have no further responsibility towards such passenger(s), including return travel arrangements. No refunds will be made incurred as a result of termination.
